

FORT GANSEVOORT

Art World Luminaries Who Died in 2021

Winfred Rembert
December 30, 2021

Winfred Rembert, The Beginning, 2002, Dye on carved and tooled leather, 24 x 24 inches.
Courtesy of Fort Gansevoort, New York.

Winfred Rembert, 75, was an unorthodox African American artist who depicted the Jim Crow South in pieces made from leather and shoe dye.