New York's Fort Gansevoort opens a West Coast outpost with a continuation of a 2019 show of work by Zoya Cherkassky, inspired by her childhood in the waning days of the Soviet Union. Nostalgic and deeply personal, Cherkassky's colorful, cartoon-like paintings are humorous and surprisingly optimistic, despite depicting a society on the verge of collapse.

Fort Gansevoort is located at 4859 Fountain Avenue, Los Angeles, California.
