1. “Martin Luther King Day Program: Becoming a Beloved Community” at the Cleveland Museum of Art

This free online program explores Martin Luther King Jr.’s idea of a Beloved Community, one based on justice, equitable opportunity, and neighborly love. The event will springboard from Michelangelo Lovelace’s painting My Home Town (1998) to explore racial divides, opportunities for togetherness, and how to move forward in America. The event will include Reverend Dr. Jawanza Colvin; Cuyahoga County poet laureate Honey Bell-Bey; and the author and poet Orlando Watson.
