

FORT GANSEVOORT

ARTnews

Art World Luminaries Who Died in 2021

Winfred Rembert
December 30, 2021

Winfred Rembert, Dinnertime in the Cotton Field, 2011, Dye on carved and tooled leather, 26 x 31.5 inches.
Courtesy of Fort Gansevoort, New York.

Winfred Rembert, who told the story of the Jim Crow South through vivid figures portrayed on carved pieces of leather, died on March 31 at age 75.